Acceptance of Abstracts: 31st March 2009

Receipt of Papers: 30th June 2009

The Destination

Coffs Harbour has an excellent subtropical climate, rated by the CSIRO as the best in Australia. The city is surrounded by 44km of pristine beaches, dramatic ranges, national parks and waterfalls – a very invigorating environment. Coffs Harbour is located in the Coffs Coast region on the East Coast of Australia, approximately halfway between Sydney and Brisbane.

Set on 40 hectares of subtropical gardens, Novotel Pacific Bay Resort is surrounded by ocean (situated on the beach at spectacular Charlesworth Bay), mountains, natural forest and banana plantations. The Novotel Pacific Bay Resort is only 3 km's north of Coffs Harbour and only minutes from Coffs Harbour airport, which features good airline connections with all major Australian cities.

Novotel Pacific Bay Resort has it all. The Pacific Conference Centre at Novotel Pacific Bay Resort Coffs Harbour is recognized as a leading conference venue in Australia. The resort boasts beautifully appointed rooms and luxury self contained spa suites, a 9 hole, par 3 golf course, 3 heated swimming pools, 4 floodlit tennis courts, walking and jogging trails and a fitness centre. For rest and rejuvenation the Bayside Spa Centre features a flotation tank, sauna, spa, Tranquility Beauty and Massage Retreat and the Pacific Bay Hair Studio. Kids are more than welcome as the resort includes a Kids Club which operates year round with qualified staff providing a safe haven of fun and activity for children aged 2 to 15 years.

Guide to Submission

Papers submitted to the Corrosion & Prevention 2009 Conference must be original unpublished works. It is the responsibility of the author to obtain necessary clearance/permission from their organisation. Copyright of the paper is assigned to the ACA. Abstracts should include the names of all authors, an appropriate title and a brief summary. It is required that all authors whose papers are accepted will register for the conference and present their papers in person.

Your Hosts

The Australasian Corrosion Association Incorporated (ACA) is a not-for-profit, industry association, established in 1955 to service the needs of Australian and New Zealand companies, organisations and individuals involved in the fight against corrosion.

The mission of the ACA is to promote the co-operation of academic, industrial, commercial and governmental organisations in relation to corrosion and its mitigation and for disseminating information on all aspects of corrosion and its prevention by promoting lectures, symposia, publications and other activities.

Conference Committee

For 2009 the conference will be convened by the Newcastle branch of the ACA.
